

Show Me Youth Livestock Judging Series
&
Montgomery County 4-H
Montgomery County Livestock Judging Contest
Tuesday, July 19, 2022
Registration 8:00 AM
Contest Begins 9:00 AM

- The goals are to encourage more involvement in the livestock judging activity.
 - To encourage further growth in contestants' ability to observe, understand and recognize differences in live animal evaluation.
 - To improve public speaking, poise and confidence in youth through oral reasons.
 - To train youth to be individuals with outstanding honesty, integrity and communication skills.
 - To allow more opportunities for youth to expand their knowledge of livestock species.
1. The contests will be held simultaneously at the Montgomery County fairgrounds. Contestants may participate in either or both contests. Separate prizes are awarded for each contest.
 2. Show Me Youth Series is directed by the Mizzou Livestock Judging team and their coach Tawnie DeJong. This contest is open to any Missouri youth ages 5-21. Go to showmeyouthlivestockjudging.com or the Facebook page for complete rules and guidelines.
 3. There is a $10 entry fee to participate in the Show Me Youth division
 4. Cash prizes and banners will be awarded to high scorers in four age divisions of the Show Me Youth contest.
 5. Montgomery County 4-H members may participate in a separate division for member ages 7-18. The top scorers in the junior and senior division may represent the county at the State 4-H contest.
 6. There is no charge to participate in the Montgomery County 4-H division.
 7. There will be a minimum of six classes with both reasons and questions for all participants.
 8. Livestock for classes will be selected by the officials and may be selected from stock exhibited at the fair or brought in from other sources.
 9. Official results will be determined by qualified judges selected by the Show Me Youth contest committee. Their placing and scoring decisions will be final for both contests.
 10. For questions and more information contact Mike Henderson at (573) 220-5786
